PASTOR MISSING, SIX BIDS TO BUILD WOMEN OF FLUCK SEARCH FOR HIM

clothes, without any baggage. His The police of Yonkers and neighboring cities have sent out alarms and looked for him in vain without finding the least trace of the missing minister.

The minister had not been well for several weeks prior to his disappearance. Hard study and diligent attention to the affairs of his courch had brought Mr. Allison to a condition bor-dering on nervous breakdown. A few days before he left the parsonage Mr. Allison made application at the doors of a sanitarium naer Pougakeepsie, but he was denied admittance because he was without the necessary doctor's cer-

COURT ORDERS JUDGMENT IN DIVORCE SUIT SEALED.

Whether Dr. McKnight, Who Names a Professor, Gets Decree Not Made Public.

Judgment was heed to-day in the sult of Dr. William C. McKnight, of the New York Eye and Har Informary, for a divorce from Ida Effic McKnight. The nature of the judgment is made a sealing it as well as the report of Referee Henry A. Powed, upon which needed with the case. This order was signed by Justice Blanchard.

Dr. McKnight named Prof. Eugene A. Marks as co-respondent. The professor is past sixty years of age and has a school for girls in One Hundred and Twenty-first street, near Mount Mrrois Park.

Mrs. McKnight is much older than her she supported him while he was study-ing medicine, and that as soon as he practise, eight years ago, he deserted her and she then became superintend-ent and instructor in Prof. Maks's school. She charged that Dr. McKnight surrounded her with spies, even placing girl pugils of the school as detectives

She declared that the doctor got a maid in the house said toat during the name of June 2 last, when there was a thunderstorm, the maid gave a signal to three divorce detactives in waiting. They broke into the house and were ied by the maid-detective to Prof. Marks's room, where her eight-year-old son slept. She was at the moment putting the boy to sed Prof. Marks was crused and drove the intruders out, according to Mrs. McKnight.

Dr. McKnight instituted this sait for
